A wedding of widespread interest in Virginia and Maryland was solemnized yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of the bride, 911 Seminary Avenue, Ginter Park, when Miss Eleanor Washington Swann, daughter of Mrs. Cromwell O. Swann, became the bride of Ward Mayhew Parker Mitchell, formerly of Brookline, Mass., but now of New York City. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Dr. Morris, D. D., rector of Monumental Episcopal Church.

The bride is closely related on her father's side to the late Governor Thomas Swann of Maryland, while on her mother's side she claims relationship to the Challeys, of Poltoun, Southern France, and of prominent families in Maryland. The groom is related to late Governor Mayhew of Massachusetts, and to Ralph Waldo Emerson, coming from a prominent Massachusetts family. He is a graduate of Harvard University and of the Harvard Law School, and is a member of the Harvard Club in New York City.

The home was decorated for the occasion, baskets of pink roses and lilies of the valley being distributed in the dining-room and library, while the altar was banked with palms and lighted candles, with pink roses and lilies. The bridesmaids, Miss Lucy Digges Swann, a sister, was maid of honor, and Orlando M. Barnes, of New York City, acted as best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Lucy Digges Swann, of Baltimore, and Miss Sinclair, niece of the bride.

The bride was given away by her brother, Sydney Charles Swann. She was dressed in white silk with lace, with her veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with markers of white satin and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was dressed in pink tulle over tulle, carrying a shower bouquet of Maryland roses.

There was no reception following the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left for Atlantic City, and will later make their home in New York City. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Mary Wilson Long, of New York; Miss Mary Wilson Long, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wallace Mitchell, of Brookline, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander Swann, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Orlando M. Barnes, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pollak, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. F. Low and Reginald L. Sweet, all of New York.

RANDOLPH-MACON ALUMNAE REQUEST RECOGNITION
They Ask That Woman Be Given Membership in Board of Trustees.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHLAND, Va., June 7.—Alumnae of Randolph-Macon college for Women have asked that they be given recognition by the election of a woman as a member of the Randolph-Macon board of trustees. This request was presented formally to the board when it met here to-day for its annual session. The petition was presented by Mrs. J. Davis Bell, of Lynchburg; Miss Josephine McColl and Mrs. Garnett, of Richmond. These women, in presenting their request to the board, expressed a preference for an alumna of the Randolph-Macon school, should their petition be granted. The board appointed a committee to consider the petition and make a report at a future meeting. It was stated that such recognition to the women graduates of the school would necessitate a radical change in this corporate body of eighty-six years standing.

The meeting of the board of trustees, at which much routine business was transacted, was adjourned to the Sutherland hall, where the commencement exercises which now are under way. At 11 o'clock this morning the annual oratorical contest for the Sutherland medal was held, the contest being won by I. M. Groves, of Martinsville, Va.; J.
